Charming Stone Cottage in Historic Grove Park

Set on a quiet, tree-lined street with a rear service alley in the heart of Historic Grove Park, this classic North Asheville stone cottage pairs timeless architecture with thoughtful modern refinement. Offering 2,200 square feet of single-level living and 3,168 total finished square feet, the home comprises of five bedrooms, three full baths, and a half bath — a rare balance of historic character and everyday livability.

Original hardwood floors extend throughout, grounding a beautifully renovated, modern kitchen and updated baths in period warmth. A screened porch and sun-filled sunroom invite year-round enjoyment, while a private sauna adds an unexpected touch of luxury. Generous storage throughout further sets this home apart.
